

Open position: Operations Manager

Company

AESA Cortailod is an international high-tech SME located in Switzerland, canton of Neuchatel, with offices in Germany and China. We develop and produce automatic test equipment (ATE) and solutions for the electrical cable industry, addressing multiple market segments, including telecom, energy, automotive, etc. Exports account for 95% of our sales.

For our Operations Department in Bevaix, Switzerland, we are looking for a senior Operations Manager. This person will manage our supply chain and oversee our daily operations.

Responsibilities / Duties

- Manage day to day business of the operations department
- Lead and support the full supply team
- Ensure that operational activities are on track
- Anticipate and track operational risks and provide strategic solutions
- Collaborate with the back-office team to ensure seamless business execution
- Oversee operational systems, processes, and infrastructure while looking for opportunities of improvement or revision
- Report weekly, monthly, quarterly, and annual metrics, to the top management

Qualifications / Skills

Experiences: Proven work experience as Operations Manager or similar role
Track record in supply chain management
Knowledge of organizational effectiveness and operations management
Experience in a manufacturing or production environment, preferably in the technology sector

Others: Leadership abilities
Proactive and self-motivated person
Autonomous and team oriented personality
Well-organized is a must
Good communicator

Languages: French: very good spoken and written English: very good spoken and written
German: a plus

Education: MS or BS degree in business or engineering

Conditions

Worktime percentage: ~80% (to be discussed)
Permanent contract with attractive conditions
Starting date: as early as possible

Contact

AESA SA, Rue de Neuchâtel 24, CH-2022 Bevaix
mgt@aesa-cortailod.com

CF/VAE - 241211